

Puppy Sales Agreement

Taking home your new puppy should be a happy time for you. Golden Retrievers are a delightful breed and your pup is the offspring of parents who possess the qualities for which the breed has long been favored as companions, hunting dogs, service dogs, and successful competitors in many performance areas.

These pups are the result of breeding two dogs of proven physical soundness, good disposition and above average abilities. Our puppies tend to be energetic dogs with high intelligence, wonderful problem solving skills, and a desire to be busy. A puppy from our breeding program undoubtedly will require guidelines and parameters at an early age, or it may challenge you for pack leader status. It will require mental exercise to avoid becoming bored or destructive. It will require your time and attention. It will thrive on daily exercise. We encourage you to establish control and a working relationship with your dog to make him a devoted and valuable member of your family.

We recommend the book How To Raise A Puppy You Can Live With, by Rutherford and Neil, ISBN # 0-931866-09-X, and TV Show, Dog Whisperer.

Your puppy has been raised on ProPlan dog food. (Focus – Large breed adult)
